RE: Anderson Family Reunions

Margaret Winter (06-17-78):

"I can remember two family reunions. One at your house [Riverside] and one at The Homestead. At your house we had succotash--which I can't stand now and couldn't stand then. I also remember Grandpa Russell sitting on the swing at your house and saying 'I don't have any Hershey kisses today.' The other reunion was at The Homestead, but I don't remember anything about that one."
